

The Rev. Ndaba Mazabane
Chairperson of the World Evangelical Alliance

World Evangelical Alliance
4 King George Avenue Forest Hills, Kloof 3610
KwaZulu -Natal, South Africa
nmazabane@yahoo.co.uk

Ndaba is married and blessed with three children, two boys and a girl. Currently he is the Director at Focus on the Family Africa regional office. He is an ordained Baptist minister and was involved in church planting and pastoring in the Baptist Church for eight (8) years. He branched into broadcasting media and became a Radio Station Director for six (6). Ndaba also serves as the President of the Association of Evangelicals in Africa (AEA), appointed as the Chairman of the International Council of the World Evangelical Alliance (WEA) and is the Chairman of the of the International Bible Society – South Africa

Ndaba has participated in number of forums addressing issues relating to social justice and ecclesiastical involvement. He is a Council member of the South African Christian Leadership Assembly (SACLA) which brought together South African Leaders in July 2003 to reflect on the seven “giants” facing the nation. Included on these were: HIV/Aids, Poverty, Unemployment, Family in Crisis, Racism, Sexism and Violence.

He also participated in a panel of African leaders, put together by Tear Fund UK, a relief and development agency, to contribute ideas and views of the religious community on the formation of the Commission and would be our expectations.

He also participated in the launch of Micah Challenge at the United Nations, New York in October 2004.